PROCEEDINGS

The Wake Baptist Association met with the First Baptist Church Franklinton, N. C., in its Fifty-Sixth Annual Session, August 16th, 1922.

Moderator, Rev. J. W. Ligon, called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock p. m., and announced that the praise service would be conducted by Rev. G. A Mial and Rev. H. D. Eaton. Rev. Mial announced Hymn 231, There is a Fountain Filled with Blood, which was sung by the congregation, led by the choir. Bro. Eaton read the 8th Psalm. Prayer was offered by Bro. Mial. "Praise God, Praise His Holy Name," was next sung, After another selection by the choir with appropriate remarks, the Moderator introduced Dr. A. W. Pegues to give the address of welcome. Dr. Pegues said that he was a part of the Association and therefore would ask Mrs. Albritton and Rev. W. F. Farrar to make the Address of Welcome. Mrs. Albritton extended a warm welcome on behalf of the young people and Bro. Farrar on behalf of the church.

Dean W. S. Turner of Shaw University responded to the hearty addresses of welcome.

"Since Jesus Came Into My Heart," was sung.

In the absence of Rev. H. C. Jones, who was to preach the Introductory sermon, the Moderator introduced Rev. L. J. Alexander, the pastor of the Holly Springs Church to preach the sermon. Bro. Alexander chose for a subject, the parable of the leaven. Matt. 13:33. Jesus was the greatest preacher—a plain preacher. He could hang the truth on anything: the birds, foxes, flowers, etc.

1. The meaning—insignificant in appearance, but powerful in its influence. As leaven changes the properties of the meal so the gospel changes the heart of man.

2. The leaven imports its own nature in meal. The gospel imports its nature in receptive hearts.

3. It leavens the whole. The whole man must become consecrated to God.

Prayer was offered by Bro. Eaton. Hymn 64, "Trust and Obey" was sung

Dean W. S. Turner who was appointed to speak on the subject "The Union Reformer, its Place in our Denominational Work," showed how impossible it is to grow and become strong without a denominational paper and every member of this Association should read the Union Reformer.

The Moderator appointed Deacons H. H. Person and W. H. Peddy to lift a collection for the mission work of the Association.

Mr. Tyler was introduced by Dr. Pegues who spoke of his work as a poet and gave some selections—When the Well is Gone Dry, and The Black Man's Plea for Justice.

After a selection by the choir, the Assocation adjourned with benediction by Rev. E. W. Moragne. Collection was $9.37.

THURSDAY MORNING

Meeting was called to order at 9:45. Praise service was conducted by Rev. W. H. Riddick and Bro. M. G. Watkins. Hymn 531 was announced by Bro. Watkins and sung. Bro. ## RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE MODERATOR

All pastors serving churches in this Association shall attend this Association at least one day at each session.

The standard amount of money for missions, education and charity to be raised annually by each church of this Association shall be an average of one dollar per member.

There should be an annual roll call of pastors and ministers of this Association, at which time they should answer to their names or some one authorized to do so.

That money for missions, education and charity be raised at each regular service of the churches of this Association.

NEW CHURCHES

We, your Committee on new churches beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the reports and credentials of the following churches:

Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Cary, N. C., Pastor, Rev. J. W. Huggins.

First Baptist Church of Bailey, N. C. Pastor, Rev. G. S. Stokes, and we find them to be in good standing and gospel order.

We, your Committee, recommend that they become members of this Association.

RESOLUTIONS

We, your Committee on Resolutions, beg to make the following report:

Whereas, we have been so royally entertained in the homes of the good people of Franklinton and the community,

Whereas, the First Baptist Church and the other churches of the city of Franklinton have spared no pains in making our stay comfortable in our meeting,

Be it resolved, that the Wake Association extend a rising vote of thanks to the members of the churches, and the pastors for their many kndnesses extended.

Further; That Whereas the Wake Sunday School Convention which is under the auspices of the Wake Baptist Association has had some misunderstanding in prosecuting its work, be it resolved

That the Executive Board of the Association and the Executive Board of the Convention meet in joint session, and adjust all differences and if necessary appoint officers for the said Convention.

Respectfully yours,
